turns the average man's mind fancy-vestward.

The advantages of having a fancy vest made by a good tailor are worth consideration.

You get a better-fitting garment, finer workmanship, exclusiveness of design and reliability of fabric.

Fancy vests, of silk and washable materials, $4.50 and higher.

You certainly ought to order one or two.

TWENTY-FOUR ROUNDS

gramme to Be Given at the Auditorium Rink.

Twenty-four rounds of the fastest kind of boxing will be offered to the lovers of the fistic game at the Auditorium to-morrow evening. The Indianapolis Athletic Club has arranged a programme of four bouts that should furnish plenty of action and interest during the evening. The main bout will bring together Otto Sieloff and George Memsic, two very clever and hard-hitting lightweights of Chicago, and the semi-ELEVENTH INNING | windup of six rounds will be between Rollo (Kid) Emig, of Columbus, and the "Ca-COLUMBUS, O., April 23.-St. Paul de- nadian Kid," of Indianapolis. The club has naturally people thought more of baseball feated Columbus to-day in an exciting not overlooked the preliminary card, and eleven-inning game. Kelly's double and two very fast four-round curtain-raisers will be offered. In one of these bouts Walter Griffith, of Fortville, will meet Sam Young, a very clever local boxer. The other preliminary will bring together two of the best local lads. All of the principals are now in shape for the contests. Interest, of course, centers in the main contest of ten rounds, and the Indianapolis friends of Sieloff pick him as a winner, as they know his ability and have never seen Memsic in the ring. They believe Sieloff will be able to land a few of his right and left swings that will take the St. Paul0 1 1 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—5 boxing aspirations out of Memsic.
